OBJECTIVES

- To extend knowledge about Hindu Law in society and to bring to light information about certain concepts which we presume to be modern but dates back to ancient times.
- To establish generalisations and connections of our knowledge of separately known events and solutions to real life problems which require an action or policy decision.
- To evaluate alternative strategies, choosing the most appropriate strategy for social welfare.
- To incorporate liberal and equal avenues relating to women security and welfare measures.