Hypothesis

The following hypothesis has been incorporated for the present study:

1. Present status of e-resources in the University libraries.
2. To design the policy for e-resources collection.
3. The steps for implementation for the e-resources collection development.
4. To know the situation of the man power working in the digital library.
5. To evaluate the source and availability of fund for e-resources.