1.0. Hypothesis:

With the above stated objectives in mind the following research hypotheses are formulated. Following are the specific hypothesis set for the present study.

4.1 Main Hypothesis:
Majority of the BPO employees have been suffering from various health problems and lack of safety.

4.2 Specific Hypotheses

1. Neck Problem faced by BPO employees is more than non-BPO Professionals.
2. BPO employees are more prone to backache problems than non-BPO employees.
3. Couples in BPO sector are victims of occupation induced infertility Problems.
4. BPO employees are more vulnerable to eye related problems than non-BPO employees.
5. BPO employees are more suffering from musculoskeletal disorders than non-BPO employees.
6. Working conditions of BPO employees are less safe than non-BPO employees.
7. The average end of job period or retirement in ITes-BPO employees are less than non-ITes-BPO.