Objective of the present work:

1. To study Information seeking Behaviour of LIS students in Marathwada region.
2. To find out the LIS Students use of formal, informal, digital and other online sources.
3. To study the use of different types of Information sources by the LIS student in this region;
4. To study the use of electronic resources by LIS Students;
5. To discover hindrances faced by LIS students while accessing and using electronic resources;
6. Find out what problems are faced by faculty members in seeking information.
7. To determine the factors that influence researchers' information needs and information seeking.