WORK PLAN AND RESEARCH METHODOLOGY:

For drafting the concerned research, the researcher will utilize the historical, descriptive and analytical research procedure for which the secondary sources will be used. The Reference Books, Research Books, Booklets, Magazines, Weeklies, Newspapers, Drawings, Maps, Photos and Electronic Gadgets will be utilized.

Work Plan:

The concerned research will have the following chapter planning.

Chapter One:
Background of Aundh State:

This chapter explained the name and the who is the main person establishment, characteristics. History of Yamai Devi and Aundh Monster battle.

Chapter Two:
Aundh State establishment and extent:

In this chapter the establishment and extent of Aundh State. This period from beginning of the state within this the study of contribution of people and the development of the state.

Chapter Three:
Aundh State and the freedom movement:
This chapter evaluated the political contribution of Aundh State. The foremost objective of this study is the relation kept by Aundh State with British East India Company. The people also helped them for his state.

Chapter Four:

A success of Aundh sansthan a critical study

Aundh sansthan Bank limited established in 1948. Malavari method first established in Aundh state. Primary education and Suryamanka were free and compulsory in that period. Clean houses had given the certificate. Under ground gutter was there. Aundh was an art house. Kirosar and Ogale made companies. Pandit Nehru visited Aundh state. First Grampanchayat established in 1939 in all over the India and this was the first experiment of Democracy.

Conclusion: