AIMS AND OBJECTIVES OF STUDY

Research will be done on the above aspects of the subject matter with the following among other aims and objectives:

(i) To expound the concept of Criminal Justice;
(ii) To note the salient features of the Theory of Due Process of Law and the Crime Control Theory;
(iii) To study the historical perspectives of the two theories and note the impact they had when they were followed by the law enforcers;
(iv) To study the system obtaining in foreign jurisdictions, particularly the United States of America, Canada, United Kingdom and Australia;
(v) To note the circumstances in which India has also adopted the Crime Control Theory in various matters of law enforcement, particularly with regard to the judicial process;