OBJECTIVES

The overall aim of this work is to study traditional use of wild and Non conventional fruits from tribal area of Palghar District (Maharashtra state).

Specific goals are as follows:-
1. To study of wild fruits and vegetables, their occurrence, traditions and habits regarding consumption and storage.

2. To analysis the phytochemical characters of selected fruits and vegetables.

3. To study the nutritional components in the edible plant parts.

4. To analyze presence of Anti-nutritional compound present in edible plant parts.

5. To analyze presence of antioxidant properties

6. To investigate the potential of edible wild plants for their bioprospecting.