Research Methodology

1. The researcher’s method would be a varied reading of the above novels with their overviews by various writers as well as interview with the author’s daughter and wife who live in the west.

2. Use of qualitative and quantitative methods at times even comparative study can be applied, as my writer has passed away and not much work has been done on him.

3. Hence comparative study with other Diaspora writers and reviewers of other Diaspora literature.

4. For Diaspora just doesn’t deal with literature it also focuses on philosophy, culture, religion, sociology, psychology and literature.

5. Hence I need to consider my subject as a very far sighted reading and goes along with a very open mindedness
Work Plan and Methodology

Scheme of Chapterization:

1. Background of the study
2. Review of the related literature.
3. Disintegrations of families in House Full of People, Your Life to Live, and Hours before Dawn.
5. Romen Basu’s Achievement through Diasporic Dilemma
6. Findings and Suggestions.
7. Conclusion
   Bibliography.