0 OBJECTIVES

The proposed study will be based on the following objectives:

1. To study the geographical distribution and growth trend of medical services and its users.
2. To study the information resource facilities and services available in the health science library.
3. To assess the financial support and utility of health science libraries in Kolhapur district.
4. To know the information requirements of the user.
5. To study the adequacy of library collection for the needs of users.
6. To examine an effective use of the library resources and its services.