HYPOTHESIS:
i) Number of slum zones are developed because many persons shifted to urban zone.
ii) Socio-economic condition affects slum dwellers.
iii) Due to industrialization slum area increase in Nashik city.
iv) Slum dwellers create many problems like health education drinking water etc.
v) Slum are developed in Nasik city because it is an industrial development area.
vi) State Government policy has been conductive to improve the socio-economic conditions of slum dwellers.