Objective of the present work:

The study is undertaken with the following main objectives:

1. To study the provision of Article 21 with reference to vehicle pollution and to find out the nature scope and importance of Article 21 and critical studies.
2. To study the Constitutional and statutory Provisions relating to Vehicles Pollution.
3. To know and understand the provisions of the history enactment – Vehicles pollution Act.
4. To make appraisal of the pollution Act and draw certain conclusions on the bases of the study.
5. Historically trace the origin and evolution of the Vehicle pollution.
6. Examine the recognition of this law at international as well as at national level.
7. To analyze the relevant provisions of the Constitution of India and other legislations dealing with Vehicle Pollution.