OBJECTIVES

1. To study present status of production of milk and poultry meat sectors in Karnataka state as well as in Bengaluru region.
2. To ascertain the demand for milk and poultry meat and their by products.
3. To analyze the present supply value chain management of milk and poultry meat and possibility of value addition.
4. To study socio economic perceptions and knowledge of stakeholders and predict the livelihood potential for the future growth of the milk and poultry meat sectors.
5. To formulate strategies for sustainability under changing climate, environment and market scenario.