Objectives:-

This research study is based on both the primary data and the secondary data. The secondary data will be collected from annual reports published by Jath Urban Co-operative Bank Ltd Jath and record available in the Head Office as well as in the Jath & sangli branches located in different Parts of the area of operation Primary data have been collected through sample survey. Standard statistical techniques have been made use of in study For example average growth rate percentage. Growth index etc used of for the purpose of analysis.

This study mainly aims at examining the performances of Jath Urban Co-operative Bank Ltd Jath. The performance is judged on the basis of following indicators.

Therefore, this research study will be undertaken with following objectives

1) To study the working of the bank.
2) To analyze trends in total deposits and composition of deposits.
3) To examine trends in Advances and Recovery.
4) To study in detail the trends in gross NPA, Doubtful NPA Bad and Doubtful NPA (Loss Assets)
5) To examine trends in Income Expenditure and Net Profit of the banks during the survey period