OBJECTIVES

1. To identify the level of self-awareness at middle management levels of the organization.
2. To evaluate the competency of self-management at middle management levels of the organization.
3. To identify the ability to persist in face of setbacks and failure at middle management levels of the organization.
4. To identify the ability to sense how colleagues/subordinates feel at middle management levels of the organization.
5. To evaluate the ability to handle emotions of colleagues/subordinates at middle management levels of the organization.
6. To establish the relationship amongst all the above mentioned parameters of Emotional Intelligence and good leadership skills.