HYPOTHESIS

It is assumed that drama was introduced to modern Arabic literature. Because Arabs were resemblance with Egyptian modern Arabic literature. Therefore its first phase based on translation, adaption and imitation. As a result the coming generation generation of drama writers were also influenced by the western culture and literature along with their drama writers. It is necessary to find out the extend of western impact on Arabic drama.