HYPOTHESIS

1. There is no significant effect of safe behavior over the safety in the organization.

2. There is a gap in between reporting system of nearmiss incidents.

3. The outcome of the results of analysis is not properly implemented.

4. The prevailing Safety Monitoring System is ineffective.

5. The work force is not motivated to accept behavior based safety aspects.