Objectives of research:

1. The first objective of this thesis is to make students aware with some untouched issues from the life of Raja M.P. at the same time his vision and message and his teachings have been reflected in a relation to requirement of the students. moreover the objectives of this study is to show the utility and relevance of the ideas of Raja Mahendra Pratap at the present time.

2. The aim of study is to through light on the character and activities of Raja Mahendra Pratap and to discuss them in present scenario.

3. Some new incidents from the life Mahendra Pratap have also been reflected.

4. The chief aim of the study is to show the contribution of Raja Mahendra Pratap in different filed like social system education and nation and international policy matter.

The thesis aims to show that the points raised by Mahendra Pratap in different filed are very significant today. It also aims to show that Indian society can change completely if the recommendation given by Mahendra Pratap is followed properly.