Advantages of the study

effective manner and H.R to achieve his goal and government to making his policy and my Advantages of my study is provide help manager to performing his work to employees in a research help to employees to get job satisfaction in his field and also help in further study in future and helpful to researchers and cover the area of government and private sector and also provide the knowledge in his field and minimize the gap between the employer and employees.

Limitations

Time: Time is the biggest problem facing in research because research takes more time.

Money: Without money we can’t start the research.

Resources: This is also very important without any data, information and guidance can’t do the research.