Objective of the present work

1. To study the use of Information Technology in the development of libraries.

2. To study the availability of Information resources as per NCTE norms.

3. To study the development of library resources through Information Technology.

4. To study the information services provided by the College of Education Libraries.

5. To study the library automation and networking in College of Education Libraries.