Hypothesis

1. Information technology is sufficient for the development of libraries.

2. Very few libraries of College of Education have/consist information resources according to NCTE norms.

3. Library resources in College of Education are not affected by Information Technology.

4. The information services provided by the College of Education Libraries are sufficient.

5. A few libraries of College of Education have complete library automation and networking and other are partially.