OBJECTIVES

1. To extend the understanding and find empirical evidence of the factors from technological perspective impeding the SMEs in adopting the technologies.
2. To explore and derive the potential technological factors which stimulated the technology transfer in SMEs.
3. To investigate and determine the significance of the possible technological factors which impacts the Information and Communication Technology adoption.
4. To design a Framework that will facilitate SMEs to implement Information and Communication Technology.