Hypothesis

The following hypothesis has been formulated.

H0 There is no gap between method of education given and industrial (practical) needs.

H1 There is no gap between method of education given and industrial (practical) needs.

H0 Reforms in an economy does not open the doors of challenges for educational system.

H1Reforms in an economy open the doors of challenges for educational system.

H0 Educational policies are not passive towards developing skills among the youth

H1Educational policies are passive towards developing skills among the youth.