Objectives:

1. The objectives of the proposed research is to examine and analyse the impact Partition produced on the nation and also on individual lives of people.
2. It also will focus on the creative efforts of the writers in questions and their responses to the historical event.
3. The research project facilitates at gaining insight into the historical event and understand how it was dealt with by the creative writers, particularly by the Indian.