Objectives of the Study

1. The primary objective of this research is to see how far the narratives of the black life in America are authentic in reality.

2. The present research aims at finding what experiences of Killens’ life find place in his novels.

3. It also aims at investing which characters in Killens’ fiction alludes to people from Killens’ real life.

4. The researcher also proposes to examine how the novelist projects his own views on the Negro problem in his novels.