OBJECTIVES

4.1. To measure the current energy consumption in the existing data centre.

4.2. To optimize servers and storages through virtualization technologies and increase the efficiency of data centre by using green software and the hardware tools.

4.3. To compare the energy consumption before and after implementing green software.

4.4. To ensure reducing carbon emission from the data centre and do bit contribution in saving the environment due to GHG hazards.