OBJECTIVES & HYPOTHESES OF STUDY

The major objective of the study will to analyze the pattern of administration and functioning of libraries after implementation of ICT in colleges affiliated to Mumbai. The set of objectives to be covered in the present study are as follows:

a) To study the present status of libraries in Mumbai colleges.

b) To highlight the influence of the ICT on the development of the library system.

c) To analyze the various administrative activities and performance services of the libraries in Mumbai colleges.

d) To evaluate the performance of college libraries from the view of the authorities as well the users of these libraries by carrying out a user study.

e) To study the role played by the college libraries towards the promotion of user services.