OBJECTIVES OF THE STUDY

1] To assess the existing insight of near miss concept among rural health care workers of Maharashtra.

2] To design and develop advanced training program on the near miss concept.

3] To develop protocol’s on near miss concept in terms of reduction of maternal mortality & morbidity rate.

4] To implement the advanced training program among rural health care workers in Maharashtra.

5] To compare the posttest score with pre-test insight score regarding near miss concept among rural health care workers of Maharashtra.

6] To associate the insight score regarding near miss concept among rural health care workers with demographic variables.

7] To make recommendations on the basis of results for effective implementation of advanced training program.