3. OBJECTIVES OF THE STUDY

- To study the improvement of the women during the Epic period and Vedic period.

- To visualize change in the position of women in India during Medieval period.

- To identify change in the position of women during British period.

- To visualize the positive and negative aspects of the life of Mrs. Indira Gandhi as a role model.

- To analyse the importance of the women of India in social, religious, economic, political, cultural, educational and scientific field after independence.

- To investigate the level of confidence, self respect, positive attitude, hard work and determination of women in India and finally,

- To study how the changing role of women in India will help the society.