RESEARCH METHODOLOGY

Nature of Data
The study on Working Capital Management of Groundnut Oil Mills in Saurashtra region has been conducted by using secondary data.

Data Collection
Secondary data has been collected using annual reports of the firms, newspaper, magazines other periodicals and websites.

Universe of the Study
The universe of the study consists of all the units working in Groundnut Oil Mills Industries of Saurashtra region.

Sampling Design
At present, there are about 50 units in the Groundnut Oil Industry in Saurashtra region. Researcher has selected 3 units using convenient sampling. Data have been collected using annual reports of the firms and websites.

WORK PLAN
The research report has been prepared and presented under the sequentially arranged nine chapters. The highlights of each chapter are as under: